

UnCommon Law presents “Lifer School”

Join Us To Learn About Effective Representation In The Parole Consideration Process

We will cover all the basics, including:

- Obtaining a fair and timely parole hearing
- Client preparation and presentation in the age of “insight”
- Access to clients and their prison files
- The role of psychological evaluations in parole hearings

Trial Counsel will also learn from Lifers and their Attorneys:

- What happens to your clients after they go to prison and how you can help them
- How to establish a strong administrative record beginning at trial and continuing through the parole consideration process
- Recent Developments in the courts
- The status and effects of Marsy’s Law (Proposition 9)

Presenters Include:

- Former lifers, currently succeeding on parole or already discharged
- Experienced lifer attorneys and litigators
- BPH and CDCR staff members responsible for coordinating parole hearings
